115. What do you perceive as the purpose of the Dublin Arts Council?

#	Response
1	Very little purpose - but it could be great in preserving the history of Dublin as well as creating arts that represent Ireland.
2	Not much, seeing as the sculptures they put out there seem to be rather ridiculous.
3	Public Art, Education
4	Promote the arts in Dublin
5	USE GOOD JUDGEMENT IN SELECTION OF CITY ART AND PLACEMENT SAVING CONTROVERSIAL ART FOR PRIVATE COLLECTIONS.
6	keep high awareness of the arts
7	To promote ugly public art
8	Not sure
9	Provide art experiences for the city of Dublin. I'd like to see DAC go back to doing festivals -- the downtown arts fest in the fall was AWESOME!! The Japanese festival was a real gem. I miss DAC's school programs and gallery programs. Bring them back!! We need more visual arts programming in Dublin. The Columbus Art Museum and Wexner Center are too far away, so I'd like a taste of them here in Dublin.
10	Promote the arts. (I really enjoy seeing the displays they put up at the DCRC.)
11	To promote the Arts as a vital part of the community. The only reason we haven't been to the Dublin Arts Center is that we don't know the hours or whether it's open to the public or just for special events.
12	To promote programs for all ages
13	spend a lot of money.
14	Other than Sundays at the Scioto I believe they spend too much time and bed tax money on buying their choices of public art and do not offer classes, activities or educational programs to enhance art in the community. The facility they occupy rarely is used by the public, they stopped offering classes and they don't include the general public in the art they select for public spaces. I believe they have become totally self serving. The Delaware Arts Castle is a much better steward to art in Delaware than ours is in Dublin. Even Columbus Cultural Arts Center is more community focused.
15	Promote the arts in the community
16	Promote the arts in our community, provide art education opportunities, protect and preserve the Arts Center building (Krumm House)
17	promote art appreciation
18	Promoting arts in the community
19	To provide classes.
20	Improve the Arts in the city of Dublin and community

21	Don't know.
22	Preserve art appreciation - but please have someone stop buying those banners that hang from poles along 161 - what a waste of $$ and city employee time
23	To keep and promote art in Dublin
24	NEVER
25	To encourage the arts in our community and provide opportunities for the same.
26	Group whose purpose is to increase awareness of the arts in Dublin. They also are responsible for the "Art in public places" program.
27	Provide education and awareness of the arts to the local community.
28	Central arts organization for the City of Dublin, funded by City of Dublin. Oversees public art and facilitates all kinds of arts in the City. They should not be handling arts education in schools. That is the role of schools.
29	to promote the arts in all ages
30	Enhance the beauty.
31	Make Dublin a more interesting place to live and visit.
32	To promote the arts in the Dublin area
33	Promote art projects in the community. It does a very good job.

40	Identify, promote and convene art and art opportunities for Dublin and central Ohio
41	Promotion of the arts in the City of Dublin
42	Promote the arts in Dublin through education, exhibits, events, etc.
43	I am not sure and I suspect that it was involved in the "corn field" on Frantz Road which is a waste of tax payer money. This needs cuts because I do not view it as important.
44	Promote the Arts within Dublin and to Dublin residents and visitors
45	NO clue
46	Promote art in Dublin?
47	To enhance the arts in DUBlin, expand our cultural appreciation. But I haven't found the exhibits of interest, and think that most of the art in public places selected in recent years has been weak. I like Leatherlips, the Field of Corn, the art in the Rec Center, love the Niklaus statue, though it should have been taller, but most of the other projects don't lead me to want to show them to visitors. They seem bizarre or amateurish.
48	to promote the arts in Dublin
49	To encourage local artist and promote art in the community
50	Promote all types of art in Dublin.
51	To expose people to art. Art makes you smart :)

100	?
101	Promote local artists
102	should be self supported/ no tax money
103	to promote arts in the community
104	Promote the Arts in Dublin.
105	The building seems very underutilized. it looks like a private residence. there is never any cars in the parking lot ? No one there to give you info. The only thing they do is the scioto concerts of which I tried to go to the last of the season this past year.. it was a mess... poor planning for crowds. Not Dublin like at all. My understanding is that it gets a % of bed tax - what do they do with it ????
106	enrich our lives
107	to provide us with wonderful art in public places and bring art to everyone
108	Provide arts opportunities and education to residents and visitors.
