25. What do you like most about the NEIGHBORHOOD park you visit most frequently?

#	Response
1	The cushioned area under the play equipment and the amount of seating for adults.
2	Bike paths, openness where you can see the skies, rolling hills, star gazing, cross country skiing
3	We don't have a park in our neighborhood, and only one is close to walking distance, but that is a stretch. Usually we have to ride bikes to it, so we don't go often.
4	Proximity to our house
5	open spaces & nature
6	The areas for running/exercise
7	Proximity
8	The different types of equipment. My daughter loves this park. It is unique and has cool equipment.
9	The respectful children who play there. There are not any kids there out without their parents.
10	open space, trails, disc golf, forest, paved trails
11	location, jogging/bike path, near the pool
12	Summer Music Program at Scioto Park
13	natural setting and easy walking trails to use for jogging or walking
14	I enjoy the gardens, pond and walking.
15	beautiful and busy
16	Muirfield Pool-Glick Road
17	There are usually sporting activities going on and they are fun to watch.
18	Visit Avery Fields most often because of soccer. I like the vast amount of space there.
19	I visit Emerald Fields most. I like the bike paths, woods, playground and bathrooms. The lax fields are nice, too.

209	convenience, well maintained
210	Walking paths that are integrated into the park.
211	The location and how well they maintained
212	It is close, we can see it from our house. It would be nice, though, if there weren't so much poison ivy, and the old, rusty, barbed wire fence were removed. Also, residents on Northcliff and Heather Glen Ct need to do more to contain their trash, or go pick it up themselves. Westerly winds carry it right to the tree line. It always seems to be windiest in Dublin on Wednesday !
